The International Tax Handbook

Written by: Nexia International

How to compare and contrast tax regimes from around the world

Tottel Publishing announce the release of a brand new title The International Tax Handbook.

This unique publication provides a clear overview of the corporate and personal tax regimes in 67 tax jurisdictions. Written clearly and concisely and taking on an alphabetical format, this is a very good reference guide for practitioners. Each chapter covers a single country and includes information on: Legal Forms, Corporate Tax, Personal Tax, Withholding Taxes and Indirect Taxes.

Each chapter has been compiled by a Nexia member firm in the specific country concerned and covers the current tax system, plus any peculiarities. Accountants, tax lawyers and tax advisors will find this guide gives them the information they need to advise clients about their overseas tax requirements and the appropriate course of action.

The International Tax Handbook is an accessible and indispensable guide for policy – makers in the industry, investors looking at opportunities overseas and for anyone considering living or working abroad.
