Personal Injury Practice Fifth Edition

Written by: Andrew Buchan, Jenny Kennedy, Eliot Woolf

Tottel publishing announce the publication of the fifth edition of Personal Injury Practice, the step-by-step guide to personal injury litigation practice written by a highly respected team of authors.

Personal Injury Practice sets out authoritative guidance at every stage of the proceedings from first interview with a client to the end of an appeal. Containing key precedents and specimen letters, it will provide you with everything you need to conduct efficient and successful PI litigation for claimants.

This new 5th edition has been updated to cover the following important changes:

- Periodical payments
- Mental health issues
- Compensation levels
- Case law developments

Throughout the text the emphasis remains upon the practical application of the rules and principles involved. Personal Injury Practice not only deals with the structure of schedules and counter-schedules, but also their proof and applicable legal principles.

This book is essential reading for every personal injury practitioner, the DIT claimant or defendant as well as students of practice and procedure.
