Guide to the Tax Treatment of Specialist Occupations

Written by: Keith M Gordon

'...this guide highlights the vital issues to be considered as well as common mistakes and problem areas'

Tottel Publishing announce the release of a new third edition of Guide to the Tax Treatment of Specialist Occupations.

This latest edition is a comprehensive and fully up-to-date book covering the legal aspects affecting those professionals with a specialist or unusual occupation. Covering a range of occupations in alphabetical order, each occupation-specific section deals with the key issues and pitfalls relevant to specialist careers which are subject to specific tax rules.

Written with the busy practitioner in mind, the alphabetical layout, appendices and list of tables ensures the reader can access the information immediately.

This new edition includes:

- Updated to Finance Act 2007 and Finance Act 2008
- Income Tax Act 2007
- Three new chapters covering – cemeteries and crematoria, independent contractors (concentrating on the IT sector) and rules allowing tax-free late night travel from work
- HMRC commentary relating to different occupations

Format: Paperback    ISBN: 978 1 84766 132 6    Price: £85.00    Pub date: June 08    Extent: 286pp
