Trusts and Estates Law Handbook 3rd edition

Written by: Penelope Reed

For the latest trusts and estates law legislation look no further...

Tottel Publishing announce the release of a new third edition of Trusts and Estates Law Handbook.

Trusts and Estates legislation has been the subject of great change in recent years. The third edition of this book brings together fully up-to-date annotated legislation on this complex area of law. It covers the primary statutes governing trusts and estates practice, with each Act having been fully annotated.

Practitioners' advising on trusts, wills and estates and who require the most current information, will find this collection an invaluable point of reference when advising clients. It provides all the relevant legislation and impact of case law in one easily accessible source.

New legislative content includes:

- Trustee Act 1925
- Trustee Act 2000
- Administration of Estates Act 1925
- Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996
- Civil Partnership Act 2004
- Gender Recognition Act 2004
- Mental Capacity Act 2005 (which establishes the new Court of Protection)
