Market Abuse and Insider Dealing

Barry Rider, Kern Alexander, University of Zurich, Stuart Bazley & Jeffrey Bryant

With changes to both the UK and European regimes the line between what is normal (and sensible) business practice and what may now be classified as market abuse is becoming increasingly fine. This raises questions about communications between financial institutions and investors, and about corporate and analyst access.

This book provides guidance on and explanation of the range of potential legal and regulatory responses to this complex area of law.

Environmental Protection, Principles and Governance: The Environment Act 2021

Francis Taylor Building

Brexit involves a break from the environmental regulation regime of the EU, including the oversight by the European Commission. A large proportion of existing UK environmental law and policy derives from the EU, with implementation largely monitored and enforced by EU institutions such as the European Commission.

The Environment Act 2020 creates a new regime of environmental policy for the UK, together with a new system of targets, monitoring and reporting on issues such as air quality, water, waste and biodiversity. It also creates an entirely new regulator with wide-ranging enforcement powers, and a new form of litigation: environmental review.

AI on Trial

Mark Deem & Peter Warren

This book looks at the questions surrounding AI and its future.

For example:

- Who owns AI?
- Is AI a product in its own right?
- Should AI have rights and responsibilities?

- What are the status, capacity and authority issues relating to AI?
- Is AI racist?
- What are the issues (legal and ethical) created by implicit bias of coders and data sets?
- Can AI be used to gain a competitive advantage?
- Can we trust AI?

Laid out in the style of a trial, the book takes an innovative approach to the most innovative of technological areas.

A Practitioner's Guide to Correcting Mistakes in Pension Schemes

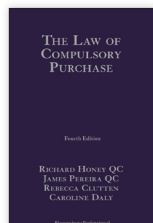

Paul Newman QC

A practical guide to the different methods available to correct commonly-occurring mistakes in the governing provisions of pension schemes, combining a detailed review of the law with (where relevant) practical tips, including step-by-step analysis of the appropriate practice and procedure involved in each method.

A significant body of case law enables more authoritative answers to the legal issues affecting the correction of pension scheme mistakes. Increasingly, mistakes are discovered because of the move to secure pension scheme liabilities with insurance companies. Trustees, employers, and legal advisers need swift and accurate legal advice on how to correct such potentially costly mistakes.

Irish Capital Gains Tax 2022

Tom Maguire

Provides analysis and interpretation of the law as applied to CGT by the Irish and UK courts as well as in Appeal Commissioners' decisions. Topics covered include the tax treatment of married couples, partnerships, companies, trusts and anti-avoidance. This edition has been updated to take account of the Finance Act 2021.

"Given the depth of detail, the comprehensive treatment of the subject, and the clear explanations of each area of this important tax for practising solicitors, this is undoubtedly the reference book for Irish capital gains tax." The Law Society Gazette (review of the 2020 edition).

The Taxation of Companies 2022

Tom Maguire

This flagship title, also known as "Feeney", provides the most comprehensive analysis and commentary available on the taxation of companies in Ireland.

Written by Tom Maguire, this new edition is updated to the Finance Act 2021. An extremely practical book, it features detailed worked examples and extensive references to case law throughout the work. The guidance and advice outlines how to successfully apply the new tax reliefs, keeping your client's tax liabilities as low as possible.

Group Accounts under UK GAAP

Steve Collings

Provides accountants and auditors with well structured guidance on the preparation of group accounts in line with UK GAAP. Group accounts must be prepared for medium and large groups.

Listed companies are required to prepare their accounts in line with International Financial Reporting Standards but larger unlisted companies can prepare their statements using UK GAAP.

The commentary identifies the differences between IFRS and UK GAAP in the treatment of group accounts. The differences between accounts produced pre and post Brexit are also covered. All commentary is supported throughout by the inclusion of worked practical examples based on the authors experience.
